Spread the Love Without the Germs!

These past couple of pandemic years have been rough in terms of health. However, it is more important than ever to protect our health because we are now rolling into flu season. The CDC reminds us to take precautions by staying away from large outings and staying home when sick. Speaking of health, have you scheduled your yearly doctor checkup yet<sup>1</sup>?

Check out these articles on the One Share, One Voice Blog for further tips to stay well during the cold and flu season.

Consult a Doctor from the Comfort of Your Home with the Clever Health™ App

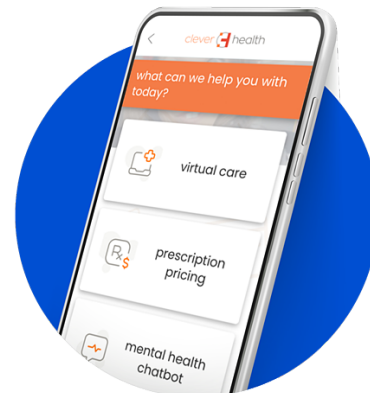

Smart Virtual Care (Telemedicine) by Clever Health™ is available to all Members, day or night. Telemedicine can be accessed through the Clever Health™ App and used to diagnose and treat acute illnesses at 100% Shared Cost.

Plus, to help the fight on the mental frontier and combat seasonal depression during these cold and dreary months, don't forget about Bella. Bella is an AI-driven Mental Health Chatbot via Clever Health™ that is available to all Members 365 days a year, 24/7.

Lastly, in addition to Smart Virtual Care (Telemedicine), the Clever Health™ App has Prescription Discount Pricing in the App, providing you access to the price in advance. Now, you can choose a pharmacy with the lowest discount and/or the pharmacy nearest to you. Isn't that Clever?

Follow these easy steps to “know before you go.”

1. In the Clever Health™ App, click on prescription pricing.
2. Search for the prescription.
3. Choose the lowest price or the pharmacy nearest to your ZIP Code.
4. Text or email the generated voucher to yourself, friends, and family (note: a prescription may be required.) You can also save the medication in the App's “medicine cabinet.”

Interested in getting started with Clever Health™? Click the button to download the app today!
